The details of the circumstances under which interest is claimed on the contribution payable for Dr. Dobson's employment in Mysore are to be found in the file.

* vide Sec. I of this File 49

In his letter No. 1841 dated the 3rd September 1888, the Comptroller asked for instructions as to the pay and allowances to be passed to Dr. Dobson. The letter not having been replied to, the Comptroller was unable to pay the contribution on this officer's account, till a reference was made to him in the matter by the Accountant General, Madras. The contribution was actually paid on the 24 October 1889 or more than a year after Dr. Dobson had left the Mysore Service. The delay in payment was due to the Comptroller not having been informed ^(till then) of the salary and allowances Dr. Dobson was to draw.

The Asst. to the Resident in Mysore

Sir,

I am directed to reply to paragraph 3 of your letter No. $\frac{3257}{3248}$ dated the 1st Instant, regarding a claim for interest made by the Accountant of Madras on account of delay in the payment of the pensionary contribution on account of Dr. Dobson for the period of this officer's service in Mysore in 1888.

2. In July 1888, in reply to a reference made to him by the Comptroller to the Fort of Mysore, the Accountant General of Madras intimated that Dr. Dobson's "officiating allowances would amount to Rs 800 per mensem, without including his local allowances for charge of the Maternity, Jail and office of Chemical Examiner." The details of the Calculation not being understood, a further reference was made to ^{that} officer, who in reply forwarded certain papers of the Bengal Army list showing the pay of the various ranks of Medical Officers. The Comptroller thereupon submitted the case to this office, with the remark that assuming Mysore to be a first class Medical Station Dr. Dobson's salary, exclusive of local allowances, would amount to Rs 800 per mensem.

3. It will be observed that in Mr Seshadri Iyer's semi-official letter of the 5th July 1888 it was stated that the pensionary contribution would be Rs 125 and not Rs 175 as calculated by Mr Wedderburn's ²⁰letter of the 4th Idem.

No reply having been received to this communication, the question of the pay and allowances to be passed on Dr Dobson's account was finally submitted with my letter No $\frac{4962}{231}$ dated the 9th August 1890. Meanwhile, the Comptroller, in communication with the account General Maoras paid the amount of contribution into the Residents Treasury on the 24 October 1889.

2. As the precise amt.
 of salary to be passed in this case was under discussion, tho it was not practicable to pay in the required amount of contribution earlier. I am ^{in these circumstances} ~~therefore~~ to request the favor of the Govt of India being moved to waive the said claim for interest
